PREVIEW NOTES

The oldest rivalry in Davis Cup history—the United States and Great Britain—will be renewed with a modern twist on a red clay court constructed in the left field of Petco Park in San Diego. The U.S. hosts Great Britain and reigning Wimbledon champion Andy Murray in its first round matchup, Jan. 31 – Feb. 2. It will be the first time Davis Cup is played in an open air baseball stadium in the U.S. and the first time the U.S. Davis Cup team has hosted a tie on clay since the 1992 semifinals (U.S. def. Sweden, 4-1, in Minneapolis).

The United States-Great Britain rivalry is the oldest in Davis Cup history, dating back to the first competition in 1900, when the U.S. defeated Great Britain in Boston. The U.S. last faced Great Britain in the 1999 World Group first round in England and won that tie, 3-2, when current U.S. Davis Cup Captain Jim Courier rallied in the fifth and decisive match to defeat Greg Rusedski in the fifth set, 8-6. Courier also won a five-set match on the opening day, defeating Tim Henman in 4 hours, 12 minutes. The U.S. has won 32 Davis Cup titles (last title, 2007) and Great Britain has won nine (last title, 1936).

The U.S. holds an 11-7 record against Great Britain in Davis Cup play, winning the last four ties. Great Britain’s last win against the U.S. came in 1935. The 1999 first round tie was the only meeting between the two nations under the current World Group format. Great Britain has played five World Group first round ties on clay (all of which were away) and has yet to win a first round tie on clay.

World No. 4 Andy Murray has a 16-match singles winning streak in Davis Cup competition. Murray is 16-1 in Davis Cup singles play, with his only loss coming in his Davis Cup singles debut in the 2005 World Group Playoff against Switzerland, where Murray lost to current Top 10 player Stanislas Wawrinka.

The U.S. is 110-17 all-time in Davis Cup ties played at home and has played in 78 different venues in 34 states. The U.S. Davis Cup team in 17-2 in the state of California and is undefeated in six matches in the San Diego area (2-0 in San Diego/LaJolla, 4-0 in Carlsbad). This will be the third consecutive home tie for the U.S. Davis Cup team after hosting the 2013 Davis Cup first round and quarterfinal in Jacksonville, Fla., and Boise, Idaho, respectively.

The U.S. leads all nations with 32 Davis Cup titles and owns the longest uninterrupted run in the World Group, dating back to 1989. The U.S. holds a 213-67 all-time Davis Cup record and has a winning record against 35 of the 39 countries faced and a level record with one country. The U.S. is undefeated versus 21 countries and holds an active winning streak against 34 nations. Founded in 1900, Davis Cup is the world’s largest annual international men’s team competition with 123 nations competing in 2014.

The winner of this match will play either Italy or Argentina in the quarterfinals, April 4-6. Should the U.S. defeat Great Britain, it will travel to Italy or Argentina.

DID YOU KNOW...

The United States has won more Davis Cup titles (32) and more Davis Cup ties (213) than any other country.

The United States owns a 213-67 overall Davis Cup record. In ties played in the United States, the U.S. owns a 110-17 record. It is 77-45 in ties played in its opponent's home country and is 26-5 on neutral ground.

Since Davis Cup began in 1900, only 137 players have had the privilege of representing the United States.

Player Biographies

- U.S. and Great Britain Davis Cup Teams
- U.S. Practice Partners
A two-time Davis Cup champion as a player, Jim Courier is in his fourth year as the U.S. Davis Cup captain. Courier hit No. 1 in the world in 1992 and is a four-time Grand Slam champion (1991-92 French Open, 1992-93 Australian Open). He captured 23 singles titles and six doubles titles and reached the final of all four majors during his career. Courier retired in 2000. Off the court, in 2004, he founded his own sports and entertainment company, InsideOut Sports & Entertainment, and in 2005, he was heavily involved in creating the Outback Champions Series (now called the PowerShares Series), a competitive tennis circuit featuring legendary tennis icons. Courier resides in New York City with his wife Susanna Lingman, who he married in 2010.

DAVIS CUP CAREER

- Years as captain: 4 (2011-14)
- Home Record: 1-2
- Away Record: 3-1

| Years played | 7 | (1991–92, 1994-95, 1997-99) |
| Ties played | 14 | (U.S. was 13-1 when Courier played) |
| Singles record | 16-10 |
| Doubles record | 1-0 |

- Played on two U.S. Davis Cup title-winning teams (1992 and 1995), clinched the 1992 title against Switzerland.
- Holds the U.S. Davis Cup record for most five-set singles victories (5) and for most victories in fifth-and-decisive matches (3).
- Played in 14 ties for the U.S. in all; the U.S. won in each of his first 13 appearances (only time U.S. lost was the 1999 quarterfinals vs. Australia, his final appearance on the team).

Davis Cup Career Highlights:

Final: United States, def. Switzerland 3-1 in Fort Worth, Texas (indoor hard)
Clinched the 30th Davis Cup title for the U.S. with a 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4 win over Jakob Hlasek on the final day. A young Andy Roddick was among the fans to attend the final. On the opening day, Courier dropped a five-set match to Marc Rosset 6-3, 6-7(9), 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, that leveled the tie at 1-1.

1994

Quarterfinal: United States def. Netherlands 3-2 in Rotterdam, Netherlands (hard)
Posted two live singles wins. Defeated Jacco Eltingh in the fifth-and-decisive match 6-3, 4-6, 6-1 after Richard Krajicek defeated Pete Sampras in four sets to level the match at 2-2. Courier defeated Krajicek in the opening rubber 6-4, 6-3, 6-3.

Final: United States def. Russia 3-2 in Moscow (indoor clay)
Helped the U.S. win its 31st Davis Cup title. On the opening day, Courier lost in straight sets to Russia’s No. 1 Yevgeny Kafelnikov. Also played a dead rubber against Andrei Chesnokov after Sampras defeated Kafelnikov to clinch the title.

First Round: United States def. Russia 3-2 in Atlanta (hard)
On a rare Davis Cup Monday finish, Courier rallied from a two-sets-to-one deficit against Marat Safin in the fifth-and-decisive match to win 0-6, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4 after Andre Agassi had his 16-match Davis Cup winning streak ended by Yevgeny Kafelnikov. Courier lost in five sets to Kafelnikov in the opening rubber 6-2, 5-7, 6-7(2), 6-4, 6-4.

1999

First Round: United States def. Great Britain 3-2 in Birmingham, Great Britain (indoor hard)
Courier became the first U.S. player to win two five-set singles matches in the same tie. Courier opened the tie with a win over Tim Henman, 7-6(2), 2-6, 7-6(3), 6-7(10), 7-5. In the fifth and decisive singles rubber, Courier defeated Greg Rusedski 6-4, 6-7(3), 6-3, 1-6, 8-6, to clinch the tie for the U.S.
BOB BRYAN (4-2 in singles; 21-4 in doubles)

* Missed the 2012 World Group First Round in Switzerland due to the birth of his daughter.
* Has 20 wins in Davis Cup doubles with brother Mike, ranking first all-time among all U.S. doubles teams; only played without Mike in the 2010 first round against Serbia when he played with John Isner after Mike contracted a stomach virus.
* Ended streak of 16 straight appearances on the team when he missed the 2008 World Group semifinal at Spain due to a shoulder injury.
* Member of the U.S. Davis Cup title-winning team in 2007 and clinched the Davis Cup title for the U.S. with brother Mike in the World Group Final. Pair posted a 4-0 doubles record in Davis Cup competition that year.
* Bryan brothers became the second set of brothers ever to play on the same U.S. Davis Cup team, joining George and Robert Wrenn (1903). The only other siblings to play Davis Cup for the United States, though on separate teams, are John and Patrick McEnroe.

Quarterfinal: Serbia def. United States 3-1 in Boise, Idaho (indoor hard)
In a Davis Cup doubles match defined by eye-opening numbers, Serbia’s Nenad Zimonjic and Ilija Bozoljac defeated Bob Bryan and Mike Bryan, in an epic, 7-6(5), 7-6(1), 5-7, 4-6, 15-13, match to give Serbia a 2-1 lead at Taco Bell Arena in Boise. Bozoljac came into the match ranked No. 1150 in the world in doubles (career-high world doubles ranking: 122) and paired with world No. 22 Zimonjic, once the No. 1-ranked doubles player in the world, for the fifth time in Davis Cup. The 15-13 fifth set in the match became the longest fifth set in U.S. Davis Cup doubles history, and the second-longest fifth set in the history of U.S. Davis Cup singles or doubles. The 4:23 match time was the second-longest – by one minute – U.S. Davis Cup doubles match since the introduction of the tiebreak in 1989. The 76 games played in the match were the most games in a U.S. Davis Cup doubles rubber since the introduction of the tiebreak in 1989.

First Round: United States def. Brazil 3-2 in Jacksonville, Fla. (indoor hard)
One week after winning their record-breaking 13th career Grand Slam doubles title at the Australian Open, Bob and Mike Bryan suffer just their third Davis Cup loss in doubles together in their first five-set Davis Cup match to Brazil’s Marcelo Melo and Bruno Soares, 7-6(6),6-7(7), 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, in three and a half hours. The Bryans had three set points in the first set tiebreaker then held off four set points in the second set breaker – including one that leveled the tie-breaker at 6-6 with a challenge of a Melo baseline shot originally called in. A minor skirmish ensues on the subsequent changeover when Bob yells “Come on!” as he passes the Brazilian bench and a member of the Brazilian delegation on the sideline reaches out and slaps him on the side. The U.S. team went on to win the tie, 3-2, when Sam Querrey clinched the tie in the fifth and decisive rubber.

Semifinal: Spain def. United States 3-1 in Gijon, Spain (outdoor red clay)
Directly following their title at the US Open, Bob and brother Mike compete in the Davis Cup semifinal in Spain and win the United States’ first point. With the U.S. trailing 2-0 against Spain after day one, Bob and Mike won the doubles rubber against Marcel Granollers and Marc Lopez, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, 7-5, to keep the U.S. hopes alive. On the last day of play, John Isner lost in his singles match to David Ferrer 6-7(3), 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, to send Spain to its seventh Davis Cup final since 2000.
Quarterfinal: United States def. France 3-2 in Roquebrune, France (outdoor red clay)
With the U.S. even 1-1 after day one in the quarterfinal against France, Bob and Mike won the doubles match against Julien Benneteau and Michael Llodra, 6-4, 6-4, 7-6(4), to put the U.S. up, 2-1. On the last day of play, John Isner clinched the tie for the U.S., defeating Jo-Wilfried Tsonga 6-3, 7-6(4), 5-7, 6-3, to send the U.S. to its first Davis Cup semifinal since 2008.

Quarterfinal: Spain def. United States 3-1 in Austin, Texas (indoor hard)
Mike and Bob Bryan gave the U.S. their first point against Spain by defeating Fernando Verdasco and Marcel Granollers 6-7(3), 6-4, 6-4, 6-4. The Bryans were originally slated to face Verdasco and Feliciano Lopez, but Spain substituted Granollers after Lopez spent nearly four hours on court on Friday in defeating Mardy Fish. The Spanish duo became the first team to win the first set against the Bryans in Davis Cup play, handing the brothers their third career tiebreak loss in Davis Cup play in the process (7-3 in Davis Cup tiebreaks). However, the Bryans were able to break serve once in each of the subsequent three sets to win the match and move their Davis Cup records to 19-2 (18-2 when playing together).

First Round: United States def. Chile 4-1 in Santiago, Chile (outdoor clay)
Competing in their first tie together since July 2009, Bob and brother Mike put the U.S. up 2-1 with a win over Jorge Aguilar and Nicolas Massu 6-3, 6-3, 7-6(4). The win was their first doubles win together under new U.S. Davis Cup Captain Jim Courier. Roddick would go on to clinch the tie for the U.S. on the final day.

First Round: Serbia def. United States 3-2 in Belgrade, Serbia (indoor clay)
With the U.S. down 0-2, Bob teamed with John Isner after brother Mike suffered food poisoning. Bob and Isner won over Nenad Zimonjic and Janko Tipsarevic 7-6(8), 5-7, 7-6(8), 6-3, in just over three hours. Isner then played in the third singles rubber the following day in a five-set marathon against world No. 3 Novak Djokovic, which gave Serbia the win and an eventual run to their first Davis Cup crown.

Quarterfinal: Croatia def. United States 3-2 in Porec, Croatia (indoor clay)
Partnered with brother Mike to win the first rubber for the U.S., defeating Roko Karanusic and Lovro Zovko 6-3, 6-1, 6-3. After Marin Cilic defeated James Blake to clinch the tie, Bob competed in the dead singles rubber and beat Karanusic 5-7, 6-3, 7-6(4), in a repeat of his Davis Cup singles debut in the 2005 World Group First Round.

First Round: United States def. Switzerland 4-1 in Winston-Salem, N.C. (indoor hard)
Partnered with brother Mike to put the U.S. up 2-1 in the home tie, defeating Yves Allegro and Stanislas Wawrinka 6-3, 6-4, 3-6, 7-6(2). With the victory, the Bryans won their fifteenth doubles rubber and became first all-time in most U.S. Davis Cup doubles victories. Andy Roddick then clinched the tie after defeating Wawrinka in reverse singles to send the U.S. to the quarterfinals.

Quarterfinal: United States def. France 4-1 in Winston-Salem, N.C. (indoor hard)
Partnered with brother Mike in a loss to Arnaud Clement and Michael Llodra 6-7(7), 7-5, 6-3, 6-4. Roddick defeated Paul Henri Mathieu, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2, the following day to clinch the victory for the U.S.

First Round: United States def. Austria 4-1 in Vienna (outdoor red clay)
Partnered with brother Mike to clinch the victory for the U.S., defeating Julian Knowle and Jurgen Melzer 6-1, 6-4, 6-2, to increase their Davis Cup doubles win streak to ten in a row and improve their record with a chance to clinch to 5-0. The following day, Bob won a dead singles rubber vs. world No. 58 Werner Eschauer 6-0, 3-6, 7-6(3).

Final: United States def. Russia 4-1 in Portland, Ore. (outdoor hard)
Clinched the Davis Cup title for the U.S., partnering with brother Mike to defeat Igor Andreev and Nikolay Davydenko 7-6(4), 6-4, 6-2. In a dead rubber the following day, Bob lost to Andreev 6-3, 7-6(4).

Semifinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Gothenburg (outdoor carpet)
Partnered with brother Mike to defeat Simon Aspelin and Jonas Bjorkman 7-6(11), 6-2, 6-3 to put the U.S. ahead 2-1, increasing their consecutive Davis Cup doubles win streak to seven.

Quarterfinal: United States def. Spain 4-1 in Winston-Salem, N.C. (indoor hard)
Clinched a berth in the semifinal for the U.S., partnering with brother Mike to defeat Feliciano Lopez and Fernando Verdasco 7-5, 6-3, 3-6, 7-6(5). The following day, Bob filled in for Andy Roddick in a dead rubber singles match, losing to world No. 6 Tommy Robredo 6-4, 6-4.

First Round: United States def. Czech Republic 4-1 in Ostrava (indoor red clay)
Two weeks after successfully defending the Australian Open men’s doubles title, the Bryans won their fifth consecutive Davis Cup doubles match to give the U.S. a 2-1 lead, defeating Lukas Dlouhy and Pavel Vizner 6-4, 6-4 in 1 hour and 42 minutes; the Bryans had won the only prior meeting against the Czechs in the 2006 Wimbledon quarterfinal 7-6 (4), 7-6(5) en route to the title. It was the fifth time in six matches the Bryans played doubles with the tie leveled at 1-1. On the final day, Bob defeated world No. 87 Dlouhy in a dead rubber singles match 7-6(5), 6-4 after Roddick clinched the win for the U.S.

Semifinal: Russia def. United States 3-2 in Moscow (outdoor red clay)
Temporarily staved off elimination for the U.S., partnering with brother Mike to dominate Dmitry Tursunov and Mikhail Youzhny 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 in an hour and a half to cut Russia’s lead to 2-1.
Quarterfinal: United States def. Chile 3-2 in Rancho Mirage, Calif. (grass)
Gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead after teaming with brother Mike in doubles to defeat Paul Capdeville and Adrian Garcia 6-1, 6-2, 6-4. The much-anticipated match-up against Fernando Gonzalez and Nicolas Massu did not materialize after Gonzalez won a 4 hour and 20 minute marathon vs. James Blake in the opening match. The Bryans were 2-1 against Gonzalez and Massu, with the only loss coming in the quarterfinals of the 2004 Olympics to the eventual gold medalists.

First Round: United States def. Romania 4-1 in La Jolla, Calif. (hard)
Two weeks after capturing the Australian Open doubles title, their second consecutive Grand Slam doubles title, the Bryans gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead when Victor Hanescu retired with a rib injury after the Bryans won the first set 6-2 in the shortest match (in games) in U.S. Davis Cup history.

After the match, the Bryans played an exhibition against U.S. Davis Cup Captain Patrick McEnroe and his brother, John, who came down from the OLN broadcaster’s booth. Jerry Magee of the San Diego Union-Tribune wrote that “the capacity crowd was treated to an exhibition that arguably was more appealing than what they had been watching—the McEnroes, John and Patrick, against the Bryans, Bob and Mike.” Patrick said of the Bryans, who won the pro set 8-4: “They were good sports to do it. I told them they had to take it easy on us.”

World Group Playoff: United States def. Belgium 4-1 in Leuven (indoor clay)
Two weeks after winning their first US Open men’s doubles title, Bob and brother Mike gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead by winning the pivotal doubles match vs. Olivier Rochus and Kristof Vliegen 6-3, 6-7(2), 6-1, 6-3.

First Round: Croatia def. United States 3-2 in Carson, Calif. (hard)
With brother Mike, suffered first loss of Davis Cup career, falling to Mario Ancic and Ivan Ljubicic 3-6, 7-6(8), 6-4, 6-4. The brothers were attempting to tie Rick Leach and Jim Pugh’s 6-0 start as a U.S. Davis Cup doubles team. Bob replaced Andre Agassi in the singles lineup for the last match and made his Davis Cup singles debut in a dead rubber, defeating Roko Karanusic 6-2, 3-6, 6-1.

Final: Spain def. United States 3-2 in Seville (indoor red clay)
Temporarily staved off elimination for the U.S. partnering with brother Mike to defeat Tommy Robredo and Juan Carlos Ferrero 6-0, 6-3, 6-2 to cut Spain’s lead to 2-1. The win increased the Bryans record to 5-0 in Davis Cup play, all in straight sets.

Semifinal: United States def. Belarus 4-0 in Charleston, S.C. (hard)
Clinched the victory over Belarus, partnering with brother Mike to defeat Max Mirnyi and Vladimir Voltchkov 6-1, 6-3, 7-5.

Quarterfinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Delray Beach, Fla. (hard)
Gave the United States a 2-1 lead with brother Mike, defeating Jonas Bjorkman and Thomas Johansson. The win gave the Bryans a 3-0 record, marking the best start by a U.S. Davis Cup doubles team since Rick Leach and Jim Pugh started 3-0 in 1990 (finishing with a 6-0 record).

First Round: United States def. Austria 5-0 in Uncasville, Conn. ( indoor hard)
In their first home tie, Bob clinched the U.S. victory with brother Mike, defeating Julian Knowle and Jurgen Melzer 6-2, 6-1, 6-4.

World Group Playoff: United States def. Slovak Republic 3-2 in Bratislava (clay)
Made his Davis Cup debut with brother Mike and gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead with a win over Karol Beck and Dominik Hrbaty 6-1, 6-4, 7-6(5).
Prior to playing for the U.S. Davis Cup team

1998 – Semifinal: Italy def. United States 4-1 in Milwaukee, Wisc. (indoor hard)
Selected by Tom Gullikson to serve as a practice partner for the U.S. team, which included Jan-Michael Gambill, Justin Gimelstob and Todd Martin.

1990 – First Round: United States def. Mexico 5-0 in Carlsbad, Calif. (hard)
Attended the doubles match at the La Costa Resort Hotel with his family to see Americans Rick Leach and Jim Pugh defeat Leonardo Lavalle and Jorge Lozano 6-4, 6-7(4), 7-5, 6-1 to clinch the victory for the U.S.

- Wayne Bryan, the twins’ father, recalls, “Before the doubles. I took the boys out to get some popcorn and as we were coming back down the tunnel to the courts who was walking up but Ricky Leach and Jim Pugh, on their way to enter the stadium. Ricky and Jim went out and won their match in four exciting sets and Mike and Bob were pumped and waving miniature U.S. flags the whole time from the front row. Mike and Bob returned home more hooked on tennis than ever.”

Quarterfinal: Serbia def. United States 3-1 in Boise, Idaho (indoor hard)

In a Davis Cup doubles match defined by eye-opening numbers, Serbia's Nenad Zimonjic and Ilija Bozoljac defeated Bob Bryan and Mike Bryan, in an epic, 7-6(5), 7-6(1), 5-7, 4-6, 15-13, match to give Serbia a 2-1 lead at Taco Bell Arena in Boise. Bozoljac came into the match ranked No. 1150 in the world in doubles (career-high world doubles ranking: 122) and paired with world No. 22 Zimonjic, once the No. 1-ranked doubles player in the world, for the fifth time in Davis Cup. The 15-13 fifth set in the match became the longest fifth set in U.S. Davis Cup doubles history, and the second-longest fifth set in the history of U.S. Davis Cup singles or doubles. The 4:23 match time was the second-longest – by one minute – U.S. Davis Cup doubles match since the introduction of the tiebreak in 1989. The 76 games played in the match were the most games in a U.S. Davis Cup doubles rubber since the introduction of the tiebreak in 1989.

First Round: United States def. Brazil 3-2 in Jacksonville, Fla. (indoor hard)

One week after winning their record-breaking 13th career Grand Slam doubles title at the Australian Open, Bob and Mike Bryan suffer just their third Davis Cup loss in doubles together in their first five-set Davis Cup match to Brazil's Marcelo Melo and Bruno Soares, 7-6(6),6-7(7), 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, in three and a half hours. The Bryans had three set points in the first set tiebreaker then held off four set points in the second set breaker – including one that leveled the tie-breaker at 6-6 with a challenge of a Melo baseline shot originally called in. A minor skirmish ensues on the subsequent changeover when Bob yells “Come on!” as he passes the Brazilian bench and a member of the Brazilian delegation on the sideline reaches out and slaps him on the side. The U.S. team went on to win the tie, 3-2, when Sam Querrey clinched the tie in the fifth and decisive rubber.

Semifinal: Spain def. United States 3-1 in Gijon, Spain (outdoor red clay)

Directly following their title at the US Open, Mike and brother Bob compete in the Davis Cup semifinal in Spain and win the United States’ first point. With the U.S. trailing 2-0 against Spain after day one, Bob and Mike won the doubles rubber against Marcel Granollers and Marc Lopez, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, 7-5, to keep the U.S. hopes alive. On the last day of play, John Isner lost in his singles match to David Ferrer 6-7(3), 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, to send Spain to its seventh Davis Cup final since 2000.
Quarterfinal: United States def. France 3-2 in Roquebrune, France (outdoor red clay)

With the U.S. even 1-1 after day one in the quarterfinal against France, Bob and Mike won the doubles match against Julien Benneteau and Michael Llodra, 6-4, 6-4, 7-6(4), to put the U.S. up 2-1. On the last day of play, John Isner clinched the tie for the U.S., defeating Jo-Wilfried Tsonga 6-3, 7-6(4), 5-7, 6-3, to send the U.S. to its first Davis Cup semifinal since 2008.

First Round: United States def. Switzerland 5-0 in Fribourg, Switzerland (indoor clay)

With the U.S. leading Switzerland 2-0, Mike teamed with Mardy Fish for the second time in their Davis Cup careers to defeat 2008 Olympic gold medalists Roger Federer and Wawrinka 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3, and clinch the tie for the U.S. Bob missed the tie due to the birth of his daughter. The U.S. went on to sweep the Swiss 5-0.

Quarterfinal: Spain def. United States 3-1 in Austin, Texas (indoor hard)

Mike and Bob Bryan give the U.S. their first point against Spain by defeating Fernando Verdasco and Marcel Granollers 6-7(3), 6-4, 6-4, 6-4. The Bryans were originally slated to face Verdasco and Feliciano Lopez, but Spain substituted Granollers after Lopez spent nearly four hours on court on Friday in defeating Mardy Fish. The substitution appeared to work as the Spanish duo became the first team to win the first set against the Bryans in Davis Cup play, handing the brothers just their third career tiebreak loss in Davis Cup play in the process (7-3 in Davis Cup tiebreaks). However, the Bryans were able to break serve once in each of the subsequent three sets to win the match and move their Davis Cup records to 19-2 (18-2 when playing together).

First Round: United States def. Switzerland 4-1 in Birmingham, Ala. (indoor hard)

Partnered with brother Bob to put the U.S. up 2-1 in the home tie, defeating Roko Karanusic and Lovro Zovko 6-3, 6-1, 6-3, and cut theCroats’ lead to 2-1. Marin Cilic then defeated James Blake to clinch the tie.

Quarterfinal: United States def. Spain 4-1 in Madrid (red clay)

Playing in his first Davis Cup doubles match without twin brother Bob, and with the U.S. down 0-2, Bryan teamed with Mardy Fish to defeat Feliciano Lopez and Fernando Verdasco 4-6, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, to extend the tie to the third day.

Quarterfinal: United States def. France 4-1 in Winston-Salem, N.C. (indoor hard)

Partnered with brother Bob in a loss to Arnaud Clement and Michael Llodra 6-7(7), 7-5, 6-3, 6-4. Roddick defeated Paul Henri Mathieu, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2, the following day to clinch the victory for the U.S.

First Round: United States def. Austria 4-1 in Vienna (indoor red clay)

Partnered with brother Bob to clinch the victory for the U.S., defeating Julian Knowle and Jurgen Melzer 6-1, 6-4, 6-2, to increase their Davis Cup doubles win streak to ten in a row and improve their record with a chance to clinch to 5-0. In a dead rubber – his Davis Cup singles debut – Mike was forced to retire to Stefan Koubek with the score 7-5, 1-0.

Final: United States def. Russia 4-1 in Portland, Ore. (indoor hard)

Clinched the Davis Cup title for the U.S., partnering with brother Bob to defeat Igor Andreev and Nikolay Davydenko 7-6(4), 6-4, 6-2.

Semifinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Gothenburg (indoor carpet)

Partnered with brother Bob to defeat Simon Aspelin and Jonas Bjorkman 7-6(11), 6-2, 6-3 to put the U.S. ahead 2-1, increasing their consecutive Davis Cup doubles win streak to seven.

Quarterfinal: United States def. Spain 4-1 in Winston-Salem, N.C. (indoor hard)

Clinched a berth in the semifinal for the U.S., partnering with brother Bob to defeat Feliciano Lopez and Fernando Verdasco 7-5, 6-3, 3-6, 7-6(5). It was their sixth consecutive Davis Cup doubles victory.

First Round: United States def. Czech Republic 4-1 in Ostrava (indoor red clay)

Two weeks after successfully defending the Australian Open men's doubles title, the Bryans won their fifth consecutive Davis Cup doubles match to give the U.S. a 2-1 lead, defeating Lukas Dlouhy and Pavel Vizner 6-4, 6-4, 6-4 in 1 hour and 42 minutes; the Bryans had won their only prior meeting against the Czechs in the 2006 Wimbledon quarterfinal 7-6 (4), 7-6 (5) en route to the title. It was the fifth time in six matches that the Bryans played doubles with the tie leveled at 1-1.

Semifinal: Russia def. United States 3-2 in Moscow (indoor red clay)

Temporarily staved off elimination for the U.S., partnering with brother Bob to dominate Dmitry Tursunov and Mikhail Youzhny 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 in an hour and a half to cut Russia's lead to 2-1.
Quarterfinal: United States def. Chile 3-2 in Rancho Mirage, Calif. (grass)
Gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead after teaming with brother Bob in doubles to defeat Paul Capdeville and Adrian Garcia 6-1, 6-2, 6-4. The much-anticipated match-up against Fernando Gonzalez and Nicolas Massu did not materialize after Gonzalez won a 4 hour and 20 minute marathon vs. James Blake in the opening match. The Bryans were 2-1 against Gonzalez and Massu, with their only loss coming in the quarterfinals of the 2004 Olympics to the eventual gold medalists.

First Round: United States def. Romania 4-1 in La Jolla, Calif. (hard)
Two weeks after capturing the Australian Open doubles title, their second consecutive Grand Slam doubles title, the Bryans gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead when Victor Hanescu retired with a rib injury after the Bryans won the first set 6-2 in the shortest match (in games) in U.S. Davis Cup history.

After the match, the Bryans played an exhibition against U.S. Davis Cup Captain Patrick McEnroe and his brother, John, who came down from the OLN broadcaster’s booth. Jerry Magee of the San Diego Union-Tribune wrote that “the capacity crowd was treated to an exhibition that arguably was more appealing than what they had been watching—the McEnroes, John and Patrick, against the Bryans, Bob and Mike.” Patrick said of the Bryans, who won the pro set 8-4: “They were good sports to do it. I told them they had to take it easy on us.”

World Group Playoff: United States def. Belgium 4-1 in Leuven (indoor red clay)
Two weeks after winning their first US Open men’s doubles title, Mike and brother Bob gave the United States a 2-1 lead by winning the pivotal doubles match vs. Olivier Rochus and Kristof Vliegen 6-3, 6-7(2), 6-1, 6-3.

First Round: Croatia def. United States 3-2 in Carson, Calif. (hard)
With brother Bob, suffered first loss of Davis Cup career, falling to Mario Ancic and Ivan Ljubicic 3-6, 7-6(8), 6-4, 6-4. The brothers were attempting to tie Rick Leach and Jim Pugh’s 6-0 start as a U.S. Davis Cup doubles team.

Final: Spain def. United States 3-2 in Seville (indoor red clay)
Temporarily starved off elimination for the U.S., partnering with Bob to defeat Tommy Robredo and Juan Carlos Ferrero 6-0, 6-3, 6-2 to cut Spain’s lead to 2-1. The win increased the Bryans record to 5-0 in Davis Cup play, all in straight sets.

Semifinal: United States def. Belarus 4-0 in Charleston, S.C. (hard)
Clinched the victory over Belarus, partnering with brother Bob to defeat Max Mirnyi and Vladimir Voltchkov 6-1, 6-3, 7-5.

Quarterfinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Delray Beach, Fla. (hard)
Gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead with brother Bob, defeating Jonas Bjorkman and Thomas Johansson 6-3, 6-3, 6-4. The win gave the Bryans a 3-0 record, marking the best start by a U.S. Davis Cup doubles team since Rick Leach and Jim Pugh started 3-0 in 1990.

First Round: United States def. Austria 5-0 in Uncasville, Conn. (indoor hard)
In first home tie, Mike clinched the U.S. victory with Bob, defeating Julian Knowle and Jurgen Melzer 6-2, 6-1, 6-4.

2003

World Group Playoff: United States def. Slovak Republic 3-2 in Bratislava (red clay)
Made his Davis Cup debut with brother Bob, and gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead with a win over Karol Beck and Dominik Hrbaty 6-1, 6-4, 7-6 (5). Suffered from a leg cramp on match point.
Prior to playing for the U.S. Davis Cup team

1998 – Semifinal: Italy def. United States 4-1 in Milwaukee, Wisc. (indoor hard)
Selected by Tom Gullikson to serve as a practice partner for the U.S. team, which included Jan-Michael Gambill, Justin Gimelstob and Todd Martin.

1990 – First Round: United States def. Mexico 5-0 in Carlsbad, Calif. (hard)
Attended the doubles match at the La Costa Resort with his family to see Americans Rick Leach and Jim Pugh defeat Leonardo Lavelle and Jorge Lozano 6-4, 6-7(4), 7-5, 6-1 to clinch the match for the U.S.

- Mike on his first memories of Davis Cup: “My first experience in Davis Cup, we came down to La Costa, we saw Ricky Leach and Jim Pugh. I think we were, what, 9 years old. We were dressed up in flags, supporting the team. We actually idolized Ricky Leach. I remember watching him walking down to play his match, he stopped to say hi to us. Blew our minds. That's our first experience.”

JOHN ISNER (6-7 in singles; 2-0 in doubles)

Birthdate: April 26, 1985  Height: 6’ 10”
Birthplace: Greensboro, N.C.  Weight: 245 lbs.
Resides: Tampa, Fla.  Plays: Right-handed / two-handed backhand

* Entered the Top 10 for the first time in his career in March 2012 after reaching the final of the ATP Masters Series event in Indian Wells, Calif., where he defeated then-world No. 1 Novak Djokovic in the semifinals. Isner peaked at No. 9 in the world that next month.
* Named to the 2012 U.S. Olympic tennis team, where he lost to then-world No. 1 Roger Federer in the fourth round.
* Won his eighth career ATP World Tour singles title in January 2014 at the hard-court, Australian Open tune-up event in Auckland, New Zealand, where he also won his first career title in 2010; captured two ATP singles titles in 2013.
* Holds three doubles titles – two with Davis Cup teammate Sam Querrey (Rome in 2011 and Memphis in 2010) and one with Mardy Fish (Newport in 2008).
* Played in the longest match in tennis history at 2010 Wimbledon, defeating Nicolas Mahut, 6-4, 3-6, 6-7(7), 7-6(3), 70-68, in a first round match that lasted 11 hours, 5 minutes over three days.
* In an outstanding four-year career at the University of Georgia, led the Bulldogs to the 2007 NCAA team title as a senior and was a runner-up at the 2007 NCAA singles championships; won the 2005 NCAA doubles title a year after reaching the final as a freshman.

DAVIS CUP CAREER

| Years played: | 4 (2010-13) |
| Tied played: | 8 (U.S. is 5-3 when Isner plays) |
| Singles record: | 6-7 (4-7 in live rubbers) at Home 1-2 Away 5-5 Doubles record: 2-0 |

* Defeated world No. 3 Roger Federer in the 2012 World Group First Round in Switzerland in Isner’s first live singles match win and arguably one of the biggest wins of his career. It was the first time Federer had lost to American on clay since 1999 and his first Davis Cup loss in 15 matches.
* Won two live singles rubbers in the 2012 World Group Quarterfinal in France to clinch the United States’ semifinal berth; went 1-2 in Davis Cup singles play in 2013.
* Made Davis Cup debut in March 2010 in the World Group First Round, where he lost both singles rubbers in two marathon matches, and won doubles with Bob Bryan after replacing Mike Bryan (who suffered from food poisoning).
* Tallest player ever to represent the U.S. in Davis Cup.
* Served as a Davis Cup practice partner during the 2007 World Group Semifinal and Final.

Quarterfinal: Serbia def. United States 3-1 in Boise, Idaho (indoor hard)
In the opening rubber and Isner’s second consecutive home tie, then-world No. 1 Novak Djokovic defeated Isner, 7-6(5), 6-2, 7-5. Djokovic fought off 17 aces from Isner in the match. Serbia clinched the tie, 3-1, in the third singles rubber after Djokovic defeated Sam Querrey. Isner’s fourth singles rubber against Viktor Troicki was not played.

First Round: United States def. Brazil 3-2 in Jacksonville, Fla. (indoors hard)
Playing in his first Davis Cup tie at home and on a hard court, Isner blasts 32 aces as he posts his first win since October with a 6-3, 7-6(4), 6-3, win over Brazil’s Thiago Alves following Sam Querrey’s win over Thomaz Bellucci to put the U.S. up, 2-0, on the first day of play. After Bob and Mike Bryan lost their doubles rubber in a surprising turn of events, Isner battled for more than three and a half hours, but lost to Bellucci in a tough, 6-2, 6-4, 6-7(7), 6-4, 6-3, five-setter to even the tie, 2-2. Sam Querrey, playing in the fifth and decisive match, clinches the tie for the U.S. to send them to the quarterfinal again Serbia.

Semifinal: Spain def. United States 3-1 in Gijon, Spain (outdoor red clay)
After Sam Querrey lost in the opening rubber, Isner spent four hours and 16 minutes on court against Nicolas Almagro in the second singles rubber, but lost a marathon 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5, match. With the Bryan brothers winning the doubles match on Saturday, Isner looked to even the tie on Sunday, but lost to Top 10 player David Ferrer 6-7(3), 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.

Quarterfinal: United States def. France 3-2 in Roquebrune, France (outdoor red clay)
Isner won two live singles matches and clinched the tie for the U.S. in the quarterfinal against France. Isner evened the tie 1-1 after day one of play, defeating Gilles Simon in three sets. With the Bryan brothers winning the doubles match on Saturday, Isner clinched the tie for the U.S. on Sunday, defeating Jo-Wilfried Tsonga 6-3, 7-6(4), 5-7, 6-3, to send the U.S. to its first Davis Cup semifinal since 2008.
First Round: United States def. Switzerland 5-0 in Fribourg, Switzerland (indoor clay)

Isner recorded arguably one of the biggest wins of his career, upsetting Roger Federer during the United States’ 5-0 sweep of Switzerland. Isner stunned world No. 3 Federer 4-6, 6-3, 7-6(4), 6-2, on clay to earn his first win in a live Davis Cup singles match. It also marked Federer’s first loss to an American on clay since 1999. Isner followed Mardy Fish, who defeated Stan Wawrinka in four sets to put the U.S. up 2-0 on the first day of play. Isner later won his other singles match in straight sets to seal the United States’ 5-0 victory over Switzerland.

First Round: United States def. Chile 4-1 in Santiago, Chile (outdoor clay)

With the U.S. leading 1-0, Isner faced Paul Capdeville in a marathon five-set match that lasted four hours and 22 minutes—the fifth-longest singles rubber in U.S. Davis Cup history. After Isner captured the first two sets, Capdeville came back and edged Isner 6-7(5), 6-7(2), 7-6(3), 7-6(5), 6-4. Isner later won a dead rubber 6-3, 6-7(4), 7-5, against Guillermo Rivera-Aranguiz after a doubles victory by Bob and Mike Bryan and the tie-clinching win by Andy Roddick.

Playoff: United States def. Colombia 3-1 in Bogota, Colombia (outdoor clay)

With the tie even at 1-1, Isner paired with Mardy Fish (who had played in a five-set first singles rubber the day prior) to win the doubles rubber, defeating Robert Farah and Carlos Salamanca 6-4, 6-4, 6-7(5), 6-3. Fish went on to win another five-set match the following day and clinched the tie for the U.S.

First Round: Serbia def. United States 3-2 in Belgrade, Serbia (indoor clay)

Isner made his Davis Cup debut in the first singles rubber, facing Viktor Troicki, where Isner lost 7-6(4), 6-7(5), 7-5, 6-4 in a match lasting more than three and a half hours. With the U.S. down 0-2, Isner was called upon to play doubles with Bob Bryan, after Mike Bryan suffered food poisoning. Isner and Bob Bryan defeated Nenad Zimonjic and Janko Tipsarevic 7-6(8), 5-7, 7-6(8), 6-3, in just over three hours. Isner then played in the third singles rubber the following day in a five-set marathon against world No. 3 Novak Djokovic. Isner lost 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, 6-7(6), 6-4, for a total of 10 hours and 58 minutes on the court. He became the first player to play three live matches since James Blake in 2003 in the World Group first round in Croatia, where Blake went 1-1 in singles and lost in doubles with Mardy Fish.

Prior to playing for the U.S. Davis Cup team

Final: United States def. Russia 4-1 in Portland, Ore. (indoor hard)

Selected by Captain Patrick McEnroe to serve as a practice partner for the U.S. team, which consisted of Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan prior to Team USA’s 32nd Davis Cup crown.

Semifinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Gothenburg (indoor carpet)

Selected by Captain Patrick McEnroe to be a practice partner for the U.S. team, which consisted of Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan; joined Sam Querrey, who was also a practice partner for the tie; Isner had just reached the NCAA singles final at the University of Georgia, won the NCAA doubles title, and led his squad to the NCAA team title.

(U.S. is 2-4 when Querrey plays)

* Became just the 135th player to represent the U.S. on the Davis Cup team in the 108 years of the competition; first U.S. Davis Cup rookie since Robby Ginepri made his debut at the 2004 World Group First Round vs. Austria. It represented the longest span between U.S. Davis Cup team debutantes in 62 years.
* Won two singles matches in his first Davis Cup tie at home and on a hard court during the 2013 World Group First Round versus Brazil in Jacksonville, Fla., and also clinched the tie for the U.S. in the fifth-and-decisive rubber.
* Practice partner for the U.S. Davis Cup team 2005-07.

Quarterfinal: Serbia def. United States 3-1 in Boise, Idaho (indoor hard)
After John Isner lost to then-world No. 1 Novak Djokovic in the opening rubber, Querrey continued to come up big for his country in Davis Cup in 2013, defeating Serbia’s Viktor Troicki, 7-6(1), 3-6, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4. Querrey won his third consecutive live Davis Cup rubber, serving 17 aces to defeat Troicki. On the final day of play, with the U.S. down 1-2, Querrey faced Djokovic and early in the first set, Djokovic appeared to injure his right ankle and took a medical timeout. Djokovic returned and in the end, defeated Querrey, 7-5, 6-7(4), 6-1, 6-0.

First Round: United States def. Brazil 3-2 in Jacksonville, Fla. (indoor hard)
Playing in his first Davis Cup tie at home and on a hard court, Querrey opens the tie and coasts to easy straight-sets win over Brazil’s Thomaz Bellucci, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4. John Isner also wins on the first day to put the U.S. up, 2-0, over Brazil. In a surprising turn of events, Bob and Mike Bryan lose their doubles rubber and then John Isner loses a tough five-setter to Bellucci to level the tie, 2-2. No. 20 Querrey rallies to beat Thiago Alves 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 7-6(3), in the fifth-and-decisive match. It was the first time a U.S. Davis Cup match came down to the final match since Pete Sampras defeated Slava Doesedel of the Czech Republic in the 2000 quarterfinals in Los Angeles. Querrey had not won a live singles match prior to this weekend and ended up with two wins. Querrey’s Sunday match took place on Super Bowl Sunday and concluded during the first quarter when a touchdown had already been scored.

Semifinal: Spain def. United States 3-1 in Gijon, Spain (outdoor clay)
Playing in his first Davis Cup tie since 2010, Querrey opened the tie with a tough match against world No. 5 David Ferrer, but loses, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4. John Isner then spent four hours and 16 minutes on court against Nicolas Almagro in the second singles rubber, but lost a marathon five-set match. Bob and Mike Bryan kept the U.S. hopes alive by winning the doubles match, and then Ferrer defeated Isner in the fourth rubber, 6-7(3), 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, to send Spain to its seventh Davis Cup final since 2000 by defeating the U.S. 3-1.

Playoff: United States def. Colombia 3-1 in Bogota, Colombia (outdoor clay)
After Mardy Fish won the first singles rubber, Querrey lost his singles rubber, losing to Santiago Giraldo 6-2, 6-4, 7-5. Fish paired with John Isner the following day to capture the doubles point, then Fish won another five-set match on the final day to clinch the tie for the U.S.

First Round: Serbia def. United States 3-2 in Belgrade, Serbia (indoor clay)
In his second tie on the road, Querrey took the first set off of No. 3 Novak Djokovic in the second match of the tie 6-2, 7-6(4), 2-6, 6-3. With the U.S. trailing 0-2, John Isner and Bob Bryan captured the doubles tie, but Isner lost in a five-set marathon to Djokovic for the Serbia clinch. Querrey played in the dead rubber and defeated Viktor Troicki 7-5, 6-2.

Semifinal: Spain def. United States 4-1 in Madrid (red clay)
Making his Davis Cup debut on the road on red clay, Querrey took the first set off of No. 1 Rafael Nadal in the first match of the tie before losing 6-7(5), 6-4, 6-3, 6-4, just 18 days after losing to Nadal in four sets in the fourth round of the US Open. It marked just the second time in U.S. Davis Cup history that the team faced the world’s No. 1 player. Following Nadal’s tie-clinching victory over Roddick on Day 3, Querrey lost to Feliciano Lopez in a dead rubber, 7-6(3), 7-6(4).

Prior to playing for the U.S. Davis Cup team

2007 – Semifinal: United States def. Sweden 4-1 in Gothenburg (indoor carpet)
Selected by Captain Patrick McEnroe to serve as a practice partner for the U.S. team, which consisted of Andy Roddick, James Blake, Bob and Mike Bryan.

Served as an alternate for the U.S. team due to the uncertainty surrounding Andy Roddick’s hamstring injury nine days before the tie. The U.S. team consisted of Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan.

2006 – Quarterfinal: United States def. Chile 3-2 in Rancho Mirage, Calif. (grass)
Drove his “pimped-out” 1974 Volkswagen Vanagon from his home to be a practice partner for the U.S. team; Forced by teammates Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan to sing karaoke in the hotel lobby after the official dinner.

Selected by Captain Patrick McEnroe to serve as a practice partner for the U.S. team, the first of 10 consecutive ties that the U.S. featured the lineup of Andy Roddick, James Blake, and Bob and Mike Bryan. Querrey had reached the final of the USTA Boys’ 18s National Championships earlier that summer.

Attended as an 8-year-old with his family, witnessed Sampras and Agassi help lead the U.S. into the World Group Final.

LEARNING TO FLY
* In 1946, the U.S. Davis Cup team first traveled by airplane to a Davis Cup tie, flying from San Francisco to Auckland, New Zealand, en route to Melbourne, Australia, for the 1946 Challenge Round Final vs. Australia. Following the 5-0 U.S. victory, the Davis Cup trophy made its first airplane journey back to the United States.
* In 1909, it took the U.S. Davis Cup team 23 days to sail from Vancouver, Canada, to Brisbane, Australia, for the 1909 Challenge Round Final vs. Australia.
* In 1900, the British Davis Cup team traveled for nine days by sea from Liverpool, England, to New York to play the United States in the first ever Davis Cup tie in Boston.

BROtherly love
* Identical twins Bob and Mike Bryan played in 16 straight Davis Cup ties from the 2003 World Group Playoff at Bratislava, Slovak Republic, through the 2008 World Group Quarterfinal in Winston-Salem, N.C.; together they hold a 20-4 Davis Cup record.
* George and Robert Wrenn were the first sets of brothers to play on the same U.S. Davis Cup team, pairing in doubles in the 1903 Challenge Round Final vs. Great Britain’s sibling team of Reggie and Laurence Doherty (the Doherty brothers won 7-5, 9-7, 2-6, 6-3).

At the 2006 World Group First Round vs. Romania in La Jolla, Calif., four sets of brothers were on hand to represent the U.S. and support the team. Twins Bob and Mike Bryan won the doubles point when Victor Hanescu was forced to retire with a rib injury after the first set. Captain Patrick McEnroe and his brother, John, who came down from the OLN broadcasters booth, amused the crowd with an exhibition match vs. the Bryans following the shortened doubles rubber. Additionally, both Andy Roddick’s brother, John, and James Blake’s brother, Thomas, were in La Jolla to cheer on the team.

* Only set of brothers to play on a team that defeated the U.S. (1903, 1905-06).

Survivors of the Titanic (April 15, 1912)
* Norris Williams survived the icy waters long enough to be rescued, barely escaping both his legs being amputated. Williams, who lost his father in the tragedy, made his Davis Cup debut 14 months later vs. Australasia in the 1913 World Group Final.
* Karl Behr also survived the famous sinking of the Titanic. He was a member of the team that lost to Australasia in the 1907 World Group First Round.

Most consecutives ties played by the same team
U.S. Davis Cup Captain Patrick McEnroe used the same line-up (Andy Roddick, James Blake, Bob and Mike Bryan) for ten consecutive Davis Cup ties from the 2005 World Group Playoff thru the 2008 quarterfinals, the longest in U.S. Davis Cup history. The previous record of three consecutive ties was held by nine teams.

4h 23min - Serbia’s Nenad Zimonjic and Ilija Bozoljac defeated the United States’ Bob and Mike Bryan, the No. 1-ranked doubles team in the world, 7-6(5), 7-6(1), 5-7, 4-6, 15-13, in the 2013 World Group Quarterfinal in Boise, Idaho, on an indoor hard court.

LONGEST TIME ON COURT IN A TIE (since introduction of the tiebreak in 1989)
10h 58min – John Isner spent 10 hours and 58 minutes on court in his U.S. Davis Cup debut during the 2010 World Group first round in Belgrade, Serbia. Isner went 1-2 in his matches, winning his doubles match and losing in tight singles matches. He opened the tie with a loss to Viktor Troicki 7-6(4), 6-7(5), 7-5, 6-4, in 3 hours and 38 minutes. He then teamed with Bob Bryan in doubles and defeated Janko Tipsarevic and Nenad Zimonjic 7-6(8), 5-7, 7-6(8), 6-3, in a 3 hour and 6 minute match. The following day, Isner lost to hometown hero Novak Djokovic in an epic 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, 6-7(6), 6-4, match that lasted 4 hours and 16 minutes for the Serbia win. Serbia went on to win the 2010 Davis Cup title.
ROOKIES WINNING-FIFTH-AND-DECISIVE TIES
* Chris Woodruff defeated Zimbabwe’s Wayne Black 6-3, 6-7(2), 6-2, 6-4 to clinch the 3-2 U.S. victory in the 2000 World Group First Round in Harare, Zimbabwe.
* Raymond Little defeated Australasia’s Leslie Poidevin 1-6, 7-5, 6-2 to clinch the 3-2 U.S. victory in the 1906 Challenge Round Final in Gwent, Wales.

MAKING SINGLES DEBUT IN THE DAVIS CUP FINAL^*
* Pete Sampras made his Davis Cup debut in the 1991 World Group Final vs. France in Lyon, France. Sampras, ranked No. 6 in the world at the time, lost to No. 7 Guy Forget 7-6(6), 3-6, 6-3, 6-4 to clinch France’s 3-1 upset of the U.S.
* John McEnroe made his Davis Cup debut in the 1978 World Group Final vs. Great Britain in Rancho Mirage, Calif. McEnroe lost only 10 games in six sets played, defeating John Lloyd 6-1, 6-2, 6-2 and Christopher Mottram 6-2, 6-2, 6-1.

^ Since Challenge Round format was abandoned in 1971.

YOUNGEST U.S. DAVIS CUPPERS
* Wilbur Coen made his Davis Cup debut in 1928 at 16 years and five months old, making him the youngest player to play Davis Cup for the United States. Coen paired with Bill Tilden to defeat China’s Paul Kong and Pao-Hua Lum 6-2, 6-1, 6-3 in the 1928 America Zone Semifinal in Kansas City, Mo.

THREE POINTS AGAINST A U.S. DAVIS CUP TEAM
Sixteen players have won three points against the U.S. in one Davis Cup tie.

U.S. PLAYERS WINNING TWO FIVE-SET MATCHES IN SAME TIE

* Mardy Fish led the United States to a 3-1 victory over Colombia in the 2010 World Group Playoff in Bogota to maintain a place in the Davis Cup World Group for 2011. Fish played nearly 11 hours of tennis over three days and won both of his singles matches in five sets, first defeating Alejandro Falla 4-6, 6-1, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, and then clinching the tie in the reverse singles by defeating Santiago Giraldo 3-6, 6-3, 7-5, 4-6, 8-6, for the United States’ 3-1 win. He teamed with John Isner to post a four-set win.

* Jim Courier won both of his singles matches in five sets in the United States’ 1999 first round win over Great Britain in Birmingham, England. Courier opened the tie with a win over Tim Henman, 7-6(2), 2-6, 7-6(3), 6-7(10), 7-5. In the fifth and decisive singles rubber, Courier defeated Greg Rusedski 6-4, 6-7(3), 6-3, 1-6, 8-6, to clinch the tie.
The United States has found itself in a fifth-and-decisive match 37 times. The U.S. holds a modest 20-17 record, but has won the last five times when pushed to the wire.

TO FACE GREAT BRITAIN IN DAVIS CUP BY BNP PARIBAS FIRST ROUND
IN SAN DIEGO JANUARY 31-FEBRUARY 2

Three-day Package and Single-Day Tickets Remain Available through Ticketmaster.com

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y., January 20, 2014 -- The USTA and U.S. Davis Cup Captain Jim Courier today announced that top-ranked American and world No. 13 John Isner, world No. 51 Sam Querrey and the world’s No. 1 doubles team of Bob Bryan and Mike Bryan will represent the United States in the 2014 Davis Cup by BNP Paribas First Round tie against Great Britain. The best-of-five match series will be played on a temporary clay court in left field at Petco Park in San Diego January 31-February 2.

Reigning Wimbledon champion Andy Murray is expected to compete for Great Britain. The United States-Great Britain rivalry is the oldest in Davis Cup history, dating back to the first competition in 1900. The U.S. holds an 11-7 record against Great Britain in Davis Cup play, winning the last four ties.

The best-of-five match series begins Friday, January 31, at 11 a.m. PT, with two singles matches, featuring each country’s No. 1 player against the other country’s No. 2 player. Saturday’s schedule features the pivotal doubles match at noon. The final day of play on Sunday, also beginning at 11 a.m. PT, will feature two “reverse singles” matches, when the No. 1 players square off followed by the No. 2 players meeting each other in the final match. All matches are best-of-five sets until one nation clinches the tie. A revised schedule for Sunday may take place if a team clinches in the third or fourth match.

The U.S. is 110-17 all-time in Davis Cup ties played at home and has played in 78 different venues in 34 states. The U.S. Davis Cup team is 17-2 in the state of California and is undefeated in six matches in the San Diego area (1-0 in San Diego and La Jolla; 4-0 in Carlsbad). The winner of this tie will play the Italy-Argentina winner in the Quarterfinals.

Isner, 28, is ranked No. 13 and won his eighth ATP World Tour singles title earlier this month in Auckland, New Zealand. Isner will be competing in his ninth Davis Cup tie; he is 6-7 in singles and 2-0 in doubles. In 2012, Isner defeated Roger Federer in the U.S. Davis Cup team’s first round win at Switzerland, one of the biggest wins of his career. Isner went 1-2 in singles in two Davis Cup ties last year, with one of the defeats coming to then-world No. 1 Novak Djokovic. The tallest player in U.S. Davis Cup history, at 6-foot-10, Isner made his Davis Cup debut in the 2012 Olympics in London, reaching the quarterfinals before losing to Federer. He turned professional after an outstanding four-year career at the University of Georgia, leading the Bulldogs to the 2007 NCAA team title as a senior.

Querrey, 26, was ranked as high as No. 18 last year and was the top-ranked American man for the United States’ Quarterfinal tie against Serbia, when he beat Viktor Troicki and fell to Djokovic in four sets. Querrey, who will be competing in his seventh Davis Cup tie, played in his first Davis Cup tie at home and on a hard court in the 2013 first round in Jacksonville and clinched the tie for the U.S. in the fifth-and-decisive rubber, defeating Thiago Alves, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 7-6(3). It was the first time a U.S. Davis Cup match came down to the final match since Pete Sampras defeated Slava Doesedel of the Czech Republic in the 2000 quarterfinals in Los Angeles. Querrey had not won a live singles match prior to that weekend and ended up with two wins, also winning the opening rubber. Querrey now holds a 4-6 Davis Cup singles record (3-1 at home). He made his Davis Cup debut against then-world No. 1 Rafael Nadal. on clay in Madrid in the 2008 World Group Semifinal, losing in four sets. Querrey holds seven career ATP singles titles and has been ranked as high as No. 17 in the world.

Bob and Mike Bryan, 35, hold a 20-4 doubles record together in U.S. Davis Cup competition. The 20 wins are first all-time in U.S. Davis Cup history for a tandem, and they are the only brothers to pair in victory for the U.S. Bob and Mike also hold the all-time Open era record of most Grand Slam men’s doubles titles (15) and ATP doubles titles (93). In addition, the Bryan brothers won the gold medal in doubles at the 2012 Olympics in London, where they completed a career Golden Slam by winning all four Grand Slam titles and an Olympic gold medal. The Bryans ended 2013 as the No. 1-ranked doubles team in the world, finishing as the top-ranked doubles team in the world for a record ninth time in 11 years.

Bob holds a 21-4 doubles record in Davis Cup competition and is also 4-2 in singles (all in dead rubbers). Mike holds a 22-4 record in Davis Cup doubles matches, playing without Bob just twice in his Davis Cup career. Bob did not compete in the 2012 first round match at Switzerland due to the birth of his daughter, Micaela, teaming with Mardy Fish to defeat 2008 Olympic doubles gold medalists Federer and Stanislas Wawrinka to clinch the tie. Mike also partnered with Fish in the 2008 semifinal against Spain. In 2013, the Bryans lost consecutive Davis Cup doubles matches for the first time in their careers, including a 7-6 (5), 7-6 (1), 5-7, 4-6, 15-13 loss to Serbia in a near-record 4 hour, 23-minute match.

Additionally, Captain Courier also announced the practice partners for the U.S. Davis Cup team – 2013 USTA Boys’ 18s national champion Collin Altamirano and 2013 French Open junior quarterfinalist Noah Rubin. Altamirano, 18, won the USTA Boys’ 18s national title last August, becoming the first unseeded player to win the title in the 71 years the tournament has been in its current location in Kalamazoo, Mich. For the victory, Altamirano received a singles main draw wild card into the US Open, where he lost to Philipp Kohlschreiber. He also advanced to the quarterfinals of the US Open Junior Championship. Rubin, 17, has been ranked as high as No. 6 in the world among all juniors ages 18 and under and represented the U.S. in the 16-and-under Junior Davis Cup. Rubin trains at the John McEnroe Tennis Academy in New York and has been described by McEnroe as having Top-50 potential “at minimum.”

Founded in 1900, Davis Cup is the world’s largest annual international men’s team competition with 130 nations competing this year. The U.S. leads all nations with 32 Davis Cup titles. The United States holds a 213-66 all-time Davis Cup record and owns the longest uninterrupted run in the World Group, dating back to 1989. SAN DIEGO’S PETCO PARK TO HOST 2014 DAVIS CUP BY BNP PARIBAS FIRST ROUND MATCH BETWEEN THE U.S. AND GREAT BRITAIN, JANUARY 31-FEBRUARY 2

The Oldest Rivalry in Davis Cup History will be Renewed on a Clay Court; Reigning Wimbledon Champion Andy Murray Expected to Compete for Great Britain

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y., November 5, 2013 – The USTA and U.S. Davis Cup Captain Jim Courier announced today that San Diego’s Petco Park has been selected as the site for the 2014 Davis Cup by BNP Paribas first round match between the United States and Great Britain, January 31-February 2. The matches will be played on a clay court in a temporary stadium built in left field, which will have an expected capacity of approximately 8,000.

It will be the first time Davis Cup is played in an open air baseball stadium in the United States and the first time the U.S. Davis Cup team hosted a tie on clay since the 1992 semifinals (U.S. def. Sweden, 4-1 in Minneapolis).

Reigning Wimbledon champion Andy Murray is expected to compete for Great Britain.

The event is being organized, staged and promoted by the USTA. Tickets will go on sale to the general public on December 6 (a USTA member pre-sale begins December 4). For more information, fans can call the U.S. Davis Cup hotline at (888) 484-8782 or visit www.usta.com/daviscup.

“Our squad is ready to go up against a tough adversary in the British squad,” said U.S. Davis Cup Captain Jim Courier. “Andy Murray is one of the strongest players in the sport and we expect our home crowd to come out and support us in what will be a thrilling Davis Cup tie.”

The best-of-five match series begins Friday, January 31, with two singles matches, featuring each country’s No. 1 player against the other country’s No. 2 player. Saturday’s schedule features the pivotal doubles match, and the final day of play on Sunday includes two “reverse singles” matches, where the No. 1 players square off followed by the No. 2 players going head-to-head. All matches are best-of-five sets until one country wins three matches.

“We are proud to bring Davis Cup to San Diego and tennis to Petco Park,” said Padres President & CEO Mike Dee. “This ballpark was built on the promise of being a multi-use venue that would bring year-round events to San Diego. We look forward to seeing the transformation of left field into a state-of-the-art clay court tennis venue.”

The U.S. is 110-17 all-time in Davis Cup ties played at home and has played in 78 different venues in 34 states. The U.S. Davis Cup team in 17-2 in the state of California and is undefeated in six matches in the San Diego area (1-0 in San Diego and LaJolla; 4-0 in Carlsbad).

“Having Davis Cup return to the area allows us to showcase San Diego to a global audience,” said Mike McDowell, President, San Diego Sports Commission. “We expect a large, patriotic crowd to come to Petco Park to support the U.S. team.”

The United States-Great Britain rivalry is the oldest in Davis Cup history, dating back to the first competition in 1900, when the U.S. defeated Great Britain in Boston. The U.S. last faced Great Britain in the 1999 World Group first round in England and won that tie, 3-2, when Courier rallied in the fifth and decisive match to defeat Greg Rusedski in the fifth set, 8-6. Courier also won a five-set match on the opening day of that tie, defeating Tim Henman in 4 hours, 12 minutes.
The U.S. holds an 11-7 record against Great Britain in Davis Cup play, winning the last four ties. Great Britain’s last win in the series came in 1935. The 1999 first round tie was the only meeting between the two nations under the current World Group format.

This will be the third consecutive home tie for the U.S. Davis Cup team after hosting the 2013 Davis Cup first round and quarterfinal in Jacksonville, Fla., and Boise, Idaho, respectively.

Tennis Channel will present live daily coverage of the U.S. vs. Great Britain Davis Cup match. The winner of the United States and Great Britain tie will play either Italy or Argentina in the quarterfinals, April 4-6.

The site selection is subject to final approval by the International Tennis Federation.

Founded in 1900, Davis Cup is the world’s largest annual international men’s team competition with 123 nations competing in 2014. The U.S. leads all nations with 32 Davis Cup titles. The United States holds a 213-67 all-time Davis Cup record and owns the longest uninterrupted run in the World Group, dating back to 1989. An interview with:

FED CUP CAPTAIN MARY JOE FERNANDEZ
DAVIS CUP CAPTAIN JIM COURIER

TIM CURRY: Thanks for joining us today for the call. As you know, we have consecutive events following the Australian Open where the U.S. Davis Cup and Fed Cup teams will be hosting their first-round matches.

We will get right to it with questions for Mary Joe and Jim.

Q. Mary Joe, about Sloane Stephens coming off what was a huge year for her in 2013. Wondering if you've been in touch with her at all about the year and Fed Cup coming up, what is expected of her having to back up a lot of big results for the first time in her career.

CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: Yeah, Sloane had an amazing year, especially at the majors. She's up to 12 in the world, which is fantastic. Her consistency did falter a little bit the rest of the year during the regular tour season.

But to me she still has so much upside and places to improve. You're just seeing her develop into a complete player.

She's got all the tools, she has the weapons, she's got the speed. I think she's got the desire now. She's tasted a little bit of success. She wants more. She's been working with Paul Annacone the last few weeks. I think that's going to be good for her.

As of now, everybody has made themselves available for Fed Cup. I'm hoping everybody is going to be healthy and having good Australia tournaments, especially in Melbourne. I'm excited about her potential and how far she can go.

Q. What do you think held her back in 2013 to give the consistent performances week in, week out?

CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: I think Sloane still gets a little bit confused about how she should play, constructing her points. I think she relies on her speed and doesn't play as aggressively as she could. She does it very well when she does.

So it's just a matter of the big points, big moments, playing to her strengths. She has options. Sometimes that hurts you. You tend to fall back on what's safe and secure, and to her that's getting a lot of balls back and playing more defensively.

I think now she's more aware of when she wins why she wins. I think that's something we'll see more of in 2014, more consistency.

Q. Jim, the decision to put the U.S. back on clay for the first time in decades, explain how that whole process to reach that decision went.

CAPTAIN COURIER: The process was a team decision with Jay Berger and I, who is the coach of the Davis Cup team. We talked to our key players right now, which are John Isner, Sam Querrey, and Mike and Bob Bryan, looking at the matchup with Great Britain, what they thought would be to our advantage as a team.

Clay was what we came to as a best chance against those guys, knowing full well they're going to be tough on any surface we play them on.

So it was a group decision. Our guys, unlike a lot of American teams in the past, are quite comfortable on clay, have good results on clay, so that's what we're going to go with in San Diego.

Q. What do you think made this generation more comfortable on it as opposed to four or five years ago when it would be unheard of?
CAPTAIN COURIER: I wish I knew that. A lot of people in player development, Patrick McEnroe and Jay Berger, the guys at the USTA are involved with, they would love to see our players be more adept on all surfaces. Thankfully this generation is. That is what we are going to go with for the first time since 1992 in Minneapolis when we played Sweden in the semifinals.

Q. Mary Joe, I wanted to get your thoughts on the USA versus Italy, which is a familiar opponent at this point. You said that Serena has made herself available.
CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: Yeah.

Q. And your reaction to the Russian situation in the final, as far as the whole competition is concerned.
CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: I'm excited. Right now, like I said, all the top players have made themselves available. Having Serena would be a huge bonus. We have never played Italy with Serena on the team.
They've been our big nemesis the last few years. They've won Fed Cup the four of the last eight years, I believe.
They have a lot of depth. They have great singles. They have the No. 1 doubles team in the world. They figure things out.
We came close last year. It was the first time we were in a position when we could have beat them away. I'm hoping this will be the time.
Again, if Serena plays, it obviously makes it that much more likely.
The final, it was unfortunate that Russia could not field their best team for whatever reasons, injuries or not wanting to play. That happens.
But we're hoping hopefully to have a good start here and finally get a win over Italy. It's been a bit of a thorn in our sides for the last few years.

Q. Jim, you mentioned John, Sam, Mike and Bob. It's early to know who is going to be the team at this point, but it sounds like that is who you're leaning towards. Murray is the big wild card in all this. We don't know if he's going to show up, what his condition is going to be. For the U.S., have you written off Mardy Fish?
CAPTAIN COURIER: I think fitness is going to be a key factor here. Our team by and large the last years has been John, Sam, Mike and Bob, and that's what I expect for the foreseeable future if everyone is healthy.
Can't speak to Mardy, as to what he's going to be doing. Of course, if we have an injury issue, we'll reevaluate. I don't think anyone would expect anything different other than the guys we've been playing recently, myself included.

Q. Have you been in touch with Sam Querrey much? He's been sort of quiet the last few months. Curious as to what's going on with him.
CAPTAIN COURIER: Sam has been nursing an abdominal injury. I spoke to him yesterday. He's out training in California, targeting his first tournament, which is Brisbane, so he's moving in the right direction.

Q. Mary Joe, could you tell us about your relationship with Cleveland, how much you helped bring the Fed Cup to Cleveland, what you are expecting from its appearance here.
CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: I'm really excited. I've been living in Cleveland it's going to be 12 years the beginning of next year. It's my home now. I've raised my children here. I'm really thrilled that it's actually a really big tennis community.
When the opportunity came up to have Fed Cup tennis here, of course I lobbied for it, went to talk to everybody.
I really think we're going to have a good turnout. I think we're hopefully going to fill up the stadium downtown there.
It's been good. I'm getting calls every day about people wanting to buy tickets, how can we help, how can we support. I think hopefully it's going to showcase Cleveland in a better light. People have some misconceptions about our city. It's going to be good for Cleveland. It's going to be good for the Fed Cup.

Q. Mary Joe, break down a few of the players you haven't talked about yet: Jamie Hampton, Madison Keys and Christina McHale. Look at their seasons this year, then sort of moving forward, what you expect them to end the year ranking-wise.
CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: Well, a little bit in order there. Jamie is around 28 in the world.
Madison is about 10 spots behind her. They both had good, solid seasons. I thought Jamie had a bit of a breakthrough season, started to play more to her strengths, mentally got stronger.

Unfortunately for Jamie, she wasn’t able to play after the US Open. She had a few injuries. Her left heel. I think she was in a boot for four to six weeks. She’s just starting to get on the court and practice. Hopefully she’ll get to Australia, but we'll see how she's doing there.

Madison, she’s a work in progress. She’s working really hard. I was speaking to Ola Malmqvist yesterday. He told me how hard she's been working out physically as well as on the court.

I continue to believe that she's going to keep rising in the rankings. She’s got the weapons. When she starts to use them the right way, be a little bit more consistent, I think she's going to do a lot of damage.

For Christina, it was a big breakthrough at the US Open, get her ranking back in the top 100. She played pretty strong. She played well in Québec, getting to the semis there. She’s back in the top 70.

With Christina, I've had her many times on Fed Cup. You know what you're going to get. She works very hard. She's committed. She's dedicated. She's the kind of player you love having on the team.

Bethanie Mattek-Sands had a good year. She is in the top 50. Hopefully Venus Williams is going to be healthy. She finished strong, as well. Played a couple tournaments after the US Open. I believe she's playing a warmup tournament before Melbourne, which is a good sign.

Varvara Lepchenko struggled a little bit I think the last three or four months, but she played well for me last year in Italy.

It’s been good. I think we have 11 players in the top 100, which when I started I think we only had three. So there’s more choices, for sure.

Q. Jim, talk about John Isner and Sam Querrey, then maybe a couple of the younger guys like Ryan Harrison and Jack Sock, quick assessment of their seasons, what you'd like to see from them next year.

CAPTAIN COURIER: I think John and Sam could both use a full year of good health. Both of them suffered at various times in the year. John has a really good chance in the early part of the season to put some points on the board, get his ranking up, inside the top 10, which would be obviously beneficial going into tournaments like Indian Wells, Key Biscayne, have a higher seed, stay away from the top guys earlier on. He's having a smooth off-season so far, which is good.

Sam is going to come out hopefully hot in the early part of the year. These guys are both dangerous players, and hopefully they can tie everything up together and play at the level that they're capable of. If they do, they're both top-10 players.

From there, ranking-wise, if you look at it, there is a pretty big drop, there's a big gap. But you look at Ryan Harrison. The word I'm hearing from Boca is he's having a really great off-season with Jay Berger down there. Pat Etcheberry is involved. He's getting very fit and focused, working very hard.

Jack Sock is out in California doing the same.

Those guys both have nice potential. I'd like to see them realize that they've had some issues. Physically they've both suffered a little bit as well.

You have to do everything right to really excel in the sport right now. It's become so physical and so challenging. You can't really skate by on anything. You have to be ready to go day in, day out.

Hopefully our guys will have a healthy year that will allow them the chance to show what they're made of.

Q. The Davis Cup, the strength of your team, understanding that both John and Sam have played very well on clay, clearly the Bryans play well on everything. Was the move essentially to negate Andy Murray or Evans to a degree?

CAPTAIN COURIER: I think if you look at their results versus our team’s comfort zone, their results tend to come more on the firm surfaces, and our results come on firm surfaces and on the clay.

You have to assume that Andy Murray is going to be very, very difficult to play no matter what surface you play him on. So you look to the other elements there, the doubles, the second singles. On paper we have a big advantage in those slots.

We're certainly going to be underdogs against Murray no matter where we play him. But clay is a surface that all four of our guys wanted to play this tie on, so that's why we're doing it.

Q. Off subject a little bit. I'm covering the Orange Bowl juniors. You both had amazing success there. How did this help your careers or give you confidence to get into your pro careers? Do you still think it holds the same relevance? It seems these guys aren't getting good on the pros until eight, nine years later. Do you still feel like it's relevant in the tennis world today?

CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: For me it was a huge steppingstone, that's for sure. I just remember a lot of my peers, once we won the 18s, they turned pro, whether it was Sabatini, Graf, a few others.

I believe now there's more opportunities to play against the international field than there was back then. So maybe it doesn't hold as much of an importance as it did when we were growing up. But it's still big. It's still important. It still showcases the best of the best.

I remember when I was playing, a lot of the Europeans, Eastern Europeans, weren't professionals, even though they were playing in the juniors. You had a really good group of players coming through that ended up becoming professional. I remember playing the Maleeva sisters, a bunch of others. They all ended up going pro.

I think it changed a little bit, but it's still an important tournament.

CAPTAIN COURIER: I don't think I can add much more to Mary Joe's statement. I would concur with her.

Q. The last really relevant male to win the Orange Bowl is Marcos Baghdatis 10 years ago. Caroline Wozniacki six, seven years ago. Do you think because now the game is so tough on the body, you need that strength, that man and woman strength, is that why it's taking them longer to jump from the Orange Bowl championship to being a top-50 player?

CAPTAIN COURIER: Seems like for a bulk of the players, there's a bigger gap between the juniors and the pros. It takes them a couple more seasons to bulk up physically and be ready to withstand the rigors of the day-in, day-out grind.

I still believe when a special player comes through, they're sweep the Orange Bowl and be in the top 50 on the tour in no time. We just haven't seen any of those players lately.

Q. Mary Joe, I'd like to know if you really think that Serena Williams will be in Cleveland. Who would you rate favorite between Italy and the United States if Serena wasn't there?

CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: Well, from past experiences, you know when Serena's not there, Italy has been the favorite. They have Sara Errani in the top 10. Roberta Vinci is bordering the top 10. No. 1 doubles in the world. Flavia Pennetta and Francesca Schiavone, a couple juniors behind them, Karin Knapp and Giorgi, who played well at the US Open.

So they're very well-rounded, the Italian team. They're very experienced as well as different game styles. They're very capable of altering who needs to play when and against which opponent. It's been a big challenge for us for the last five years when we play against the Italian teams.

Obviously, if Serena plays, which I'm counting on her playing, then we become the favorites.

Q. Jim, I'd like to know if you consider Great Britain or the United States favorite. Who do you consider favorite between Argentina, without Juan Martin del Potro playing, on clay in Mar del Plata versus Italy, since the winners will play one against the other?

CAPTAIN COURIER: I think the United States is favored in three-out-of-five matches, so we would be the favorites. I think it's a little bit closer when you remove del Potro from the Argentinian equation. I would consider them slight favorites with the home-field advantage, even though Italy is comfortable playing on whatever surface they can play on. Clay or indoors, doesn't really matter. I think Argentina would, again, be a slight favorite in that match.

Q. A lot of players spent substantial and formative years in the U.S. from Maria Sharapova to Victoria Azarenka, Tommy Haas, Kei Nishikori, Dmitry Tursunov. Have you ever had serious conversations with any of those players about competing for the U.S.?

CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: No. I remember a few years ago rumor having it about Sharapova at one time becoming American. I don't think that's ever going to happen. So, no, not really. Not that I can think of.
Tommy Haas I guess tried it for a little bit.
CAPTAIN COURIER: I'll jump in.
Maria Sharapova is an American tennis player, even though she was born in Russia. All of her formative years were in America. But she doesn't play for America. That's fine. It is what it is.

But there's several players that have come and spent a lot of time here in the States that you named that basically are American-based tennis players. But it's not really for us to say who they play for. It's their bloodstream. They get the choice. I'm not going to be in the business of recruiting them, that's for sure.

Q. Mary Joe, you mentioned point construction. What does that exactly mean to you?
CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: It means setting up the point to make it look the way you want it to look, to look the way you want to get to your strengths. If you have a big forehand, looking for that middle shot, to run around. Depending on what your style of game is, have those points look the way you want them to look for you to have success.

So, you know, for me that one shot, going for that one shot, is not constructing a point. Being patient and waiting for that right opportunity to make the point look the way you need it to look for you to have success.

Q. Jim, anything to add?
CAPTAIN COURIER: No. I think Mary Joe nailed it.

I think point construction is just about playing to your strengths and figuring out what it is you need to do to win the points.

If someone like Gilles Simon is trying to draw an error, trying to put them in an awkward spot... That's what Bernard Tomic does, as well. There's other players that are looking to set up shots that they can finish the point with.

It's case by case. At the end of the day, if you talk about point construction, you're talking about maximizing and being the most efficient you can be as a player.

Q. Jim, this year we saw only Novak Djokovic of the very top players playing Davis Cup, plus there are a bunch of other problems with Davis Cup. If you could change it in one or two ways, how would you address that?
CAPTAIN COURIER: I'm really broad on the record on that topic. It's an easy Google search to find my thoughts on that.

The broad strokes are simple. I think the competition is a beautiful competition between nations. It's special when we play it. I think it certainly could be a little bit more popular than it currently is. If management took a hard look at it, McKinsey came in and did a survey and decided what they wanted to do to maximize the power of Davis Cup and Fed Cup.

They're powerful events, but they could always be stronger.

Q. Here in America, we've had a long history of players who were fierce competitors. You said you were a believer of when things get tough, you were up to putting up a street fighter front. Can you talk about that aspect of the game?
CAPTAIN COURIER: Now you're starting to get into personal psychology, which is probably above my pay grade.

Every player attacks stressful situations in different ways. Some players attack it head on. Some players attack it a little bit more sideways. You have to figure out how to move through those challenging moments the best way possible. It's not going to be for me to say there's one way to do it because there isn't. There are multiple ways.

You can look at the way someone like Rafa Nadal competes under pressure, the way someone like Jimmy Connors competes under pressure, Serena, Martina, all the greats. They all have different ways of approaching those moments.

Q. Jim, playing on clay for the first time, can you talk about setting up about Petco Park, playing in a baseball stadium, something new for Davis Cup?
CAPTAIN COURIER: I think it's going to be a special site. I think the players and the fans are going to really enjoy that environment. I've only seen a tennis court set up in a baseball stadium one time back in Toronto, in 1990, an indoor tournament there.

It's going to be special. To play outside in nice weather in San Diego in February against a great team like Great Britain, with all the history with the U.S. playing against Great Britain in Davis Cup, I think it's going to be a special moment for...
Q. The host cities in general, Cleveland and San Diego, much bigger cities than Davis and Fed Cup have been in recently. Is that the shift you would like to see more of? There’s a lot of big U.S. cities that don’t get a lot of tennis, Chicago, Philadelphia, Dallas. Previous cities have been more middle-sized cities. What difference does that make to you in terms of playing the events?
CAPTAIN COURIER: I think one of the key things that most observers don’t know about Davis Cup is the requirements that the ITF puts on the host nations is that you have to secure a site for seven days.

Given the uncertainty of Davis Cup and Fed Cup, where you're going to play your next rounds, you lose the opportunity to play in a place like Madison Square Garden, the United Center, the Staples Center, because those buildings are full and expensive on a per-day basis. To block those out for seven days, you're going to lose money.

One of the problems with the way Davis Cup is, it was formed in 1900. The rules haven't changed much since then. They don't understand the way the sport's economy works any more. So you're handicapped. You have to find creative solutions. The USTA has been amazing, incredible, top-class, at finding creative solutions, like what we find in Petco Park for a first round against Great Britain.

But you're literally in a straightjacket in the sports economy with this event these days.

Q. In terms of picking players, going for the future instead of the present. Jim, for example, if you had a situation where one of your top two singles guys wasn't available, your next two ranked guys might be like Tim Smyczek or Mike Russell, not necessarily considered the future of tennis, would you rely on what would win that tie more or setting up getting who you think will be best in the future?
CAPTAIN COURIER: My preference is to build for the future if you get into a situation like that. We've had it before. Monte-Carlo is a prime example where Mardy Fish had an issue, wasn't able to play. We called Ryan Harrison to play in that match. We knew it was going to be tough for Ryan, but we wanted to get him some experience. You have to look to the future for these things.

That's tough on the veterans who have earned their right to get in there from some perspectives. My belief is you have to build for the future and build for the players who are going to be your team down the line.

It's a little bit like the philosophy of you're either trading for a player today or you're building your farm league, and I believe more in building your farm league.

Q. Mary Joe?
CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: I totally agree with Jim. It's about the future generation, trying to work with them, having them have the experience so they're prepared when it's their time to shine. There's no better way than starting as soon as you can. I'm always looking to bring the younger generation on to Fed Cup. I'm hoping to continue.

Hopefully someone like Taylor Townsend, Vicky Duval, players like that that are having success coming out of the juniors, will slowly get on the teams.

Q. We talked about Sloane Stephens. People forget what a great doubles players she is. Is that going to come to play at all in Cleveland?
CAPTAIN FERNANDEZ: It could. You quite never know, depending who's on the team, who's going to play that last match, especially if it comes down to it.

Sloane does play very good doubles. Jamie Hampton plays very good doubles. That's something I'd like to do in the next year or two, is develop that next doubles team. We've have Venus and Serena at the top, Liezel Huber, Lisa Raymond.

Now it's time for the next generation to combine together to make good, strong doubles team. Taylor Townsend is a great doubles player. Finding that formula, that chemistry that works. But Sloane is definitely at the top of the list.

TIM CURRY: Thanks, everyone.
