Section 2 -- Credential Terms and Conditions

You acknowledge and agree that the issuance of credentials is subject to the prior approval of the USTA and/or its representatives and such credentials can be withheld or revoked at any time for any reason in the sole discretion of the USTA and/or its representatives. You acknowledge and agree that if you apply for and accept a 2012 US Open Coach Credential, you will be required to be available for and participate in televised interviews as requested by the USTA and/or its representatives immediately prior to, during and immediately following the 2012 US Open matches of each player that you coach.

By applying for a credential, you agree to comply with all the credential terms and conditions issued by the USTA and/or its representatives, including but not limited to the following:

Terms and Conditions. A non-transferable credential is issued to an approved, qualified individual ("Bearer") for the sole purpose of providing access to certain restricted areas on the grounds of the 2012 US Open, as determined by the USTA (defined below). These Terms and Conditions shall apply to all Bearers. Any violation of the Terms and Conditions, or any unauthorized use of a credential subjects Bearer to ejection from the 2012 US Open and potential prosecution for criminal trespass and denial or revocation of credentials for future US Open tournaments and other USTA events. USTA is defined, for the purposes of a credential, to include the United States Tennis Association Incorporated, USTA National Tennis Center Incorporated, and each of their respective affiliates, agents and employees. A credential is not valid for US Open seating. Each credential is property of the USTA and may be revoked at any time for any reason at the sole discretion of the USTA. Completion of the credential application constitutes agreement by Bearer to comply with these Terms and Conditions.

Bearer agrees to the following: (i) refrain from taking photographs or video footage of any kind in restricted areas including but not limited to locker rooms (the taking of photographs and video footage applies to the use of all equipment having the capability of capturing such images, including but not limited to mobile phones); (ii) refrain from participating in or aiding and abetting, directly or indirectly, any form of gambling or betting on the outcome of any tennis match staged during the 2012 US Open or any other activity relating to the 2012 US Open; (iii) refrain from requesting player autographs at any time during the 2012 US Open; (iv) at all times while on-site at the 2012 US Open (both on-court and off-court, including press conferences), no commercial identification shall be displayed by Bearer other than as specifically permitted by the 2012 Official Grand Slam Rule Book; (v) refrain from requesting a 2012 US Open Credential and/or player ticket for any person(s) other than Bearer's coach, trainer, family members and bona fide guests whose attendance is directly related to Bearer's participation in the 2012 US Open. 2012 US Open Player Guest Credentials and player tickets, if available, may only be used for legitimate player guests (no resale or transfer by player guest), and Bearer may not receive any direct financial or other benefit as consideration. Bearer acknowledges that the USTA will hold Bearer responsible for any sale, purchase or transfer of Bearer's 2012 US Open Coach/Trainer/Player Guest Credentials and/or player tickets under the Grand Slam Code of Conduct and may also revoke Bearer's coach/trainer/player guest credential and/or player ticket privileges in the future. The USTA will hold Bearer responsible under the Grand Slam Code of Conduct for the behavior of anyone receiving a 2012 US Open Credential and/or player ticket at Bearer's request; and (vi) abide by any lawful direction given to Bearer by US Open officials during the 2012 US Open.

Each Bearer: (i) assumes all risks incident to attending the 2012 US Open; (ii) agrees that, unless otherwise designated by the USTA, he/she is not acting for the USTA in any manner whatsoever and is not an employee or agent of the USTA; (iii) consents to the use of his/her image or likeness incidental to any live or recorded video program, photograph, or other transmission or reproduction of the 2012 US Open for any and all purposes in perpetuity; and (iv) agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the USTA, USTA National Tennis Center Incorporated, and the City of New York, their affiliates and respective agents and employees (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all liability, loss, damage or expense resulting from or arising out of the issuance of a credential, Bearer's presence on the 2012 US Open grounds and/or Bearer's use of any 2012 US Open transportation services or hotels, except to the extent such liability, loss, damage or expense arises directly out of the willful or intentional misconduct of any Indemnified Party.

Section 3 -- General Release of Information

I, the undersigned, _____, hereby authorize the release to the United States criminal justice agency(ies) conducting the security clearance process for individuals to be credentialed for the 2012 and/or subsequent US Open Tennis Championships (one or more such agencies referred to herein as the "Agency") of any and all records concerning me and/or my background, including without limitation my driving history and any criminal history (including any charges against me), which may be in the possession of any local, state, federal or national entity.

I understand and agree that any information obtained based upon this authorization may be utilized by the Agency in connection with: (1) any background investigation conducted for the 2012 US Open Tennis Championships or any subsequent US Open Tennis Championships for which I seek a credential; and (2) any security measure instituted for the 2012 US Open Tennis Championships or any subsequent US Open Tennis Championships. It is not intended that the United States Tennis Association Incorporated ("USTA") will be made privy to the details or specifics resulting from the Agency's investigations; nevertheless, the USTA agrees to treat any and all information it receives in the credentialing process in strict confidence, such that no information shall be divulged by the USTA to any third party unless, and only to the extent, required by law.

By signing below, I voluntarily authorize the Agency to make such investigations and I hereby release from all liability or responsibility, the USTA, the Agency, my employer (if applicable), and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, such entities and agencies that receive such information and all persons or entities supplying or collecting such information for disclosure and release to the Agency. In addition, I hereby release the USTA from any and all liability and/or any losses or harm resulting from any ineligibility to attend, compete in and/or work at the 2012 US Open Tennis Championships (or any subsequent US Open Tennis Championships for which I seek a credential) that results from such investigation. I understand that submission of this document does not guarantee the issuance of a credential to the 2012 US Open Tennis Championships.

I am aware that this instrument may be photocopied in its use and hereby acknowledge (i) the validity of my signature on such duplicated copy, and (ii) any facsimile copy, electronic copy or photocopy shall be as valid as the original. If applicable, I am also aware that my employer may retain a copy and hereby release the USTA and the Agency from any liability resulting from any misuse on the part of my employer concerning such copy. I have read and fully understand the contents of this disclosure and authorization for release of information and execute it freely and voluntarily.
