 Consistent with USTA policy and federal regulations, US Open letters of invitation are issued only for: (1) players; (2) direct player support staff (coaches and trainers) and immediate family; and (3) others with a direct role in tournament operations (i.e., international officials, WTA or ATP World Tour staff) and/or official tournament meetings (i.e., Grand Slam officials, etc.).
Requests for individuals outside of these classifications will not be processed.

Please note:

- 1. Letters of Invitation are only necessary for non-U.S. citizens and can only be written for the US Open, not any other tournaments.
- 2. Requests for coaches and trainers/physios will be referred to the ATP World Tour or WTA for verification.
