Five Of The Top Seven Americans In Action Today

American players once again have a big foot print on the schedule of the Atlanta Tennis Championships. Last night, James Blake and Taylor Dent went the distance for the fifth time in six career meetings, with Dent prevailing 6-3, 3-6, 6-4. The evening ended with the doubles team of Mardy Fish and Andy Roddick advancing to the second round.

Today's lineup features No. 2 seed John Isner, who is competing in his first tournament since his record-breaking and ESPY-winning performance at Wimbledon. Before Isner takes the court, Dent will attempt to continue his great play from last night when he takes on No. 4 seed Horacio Zeballos.

Session 3 will conclude on the Stadium Court with another American faceoff between No. 6 seed Mardy Fish and hometown hero Robby Ginepri, who will meet for the fifth time in their careers.

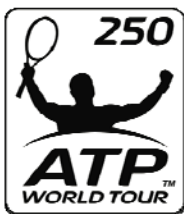

OFF-COURT SCHEDULE

3 PM – 6 PM:

Your local Atlanta Metro BMW and MINI Centers invite you to take a test drive daily for a chance to win a Two-Day M Driving School at the BMW Performance Center in South Carolina.

Conclusion of 4 PM Match:
